The screenshot shows a web browser window titled "Registration - Microsoft Internet Explorer". The address bar contains a long URL from the NASA website. The page features the NASA logo in the top left and a "Login" link in the top right. Below the logo is a "Home" link and a "Registration" link with a "Help" button. The main content area is titled "Registration" and contains a "Self Registration" form. The form includes fields for "Honorific", "First", "Middle", "Last", "User ID", "Title", "Location", "Business", "Mobile", "Home", "Fax", "E-mail 1", "E-mail 2", "Addr 1", "Addr 2", "Addr 3", "City", "State", "Zip", and "Country". A note states: "After you register, you will receive a user ID and temporary password in an e-mail. The first time you login, you will be prompted to change that password." The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the start button, several open applications, and the system clock displaying 1:50 PM.
